4. Candidate may be a member of the greater community.

Nominator submitting nomination form is required to submit the following information on behalf of nominee

- Biographical information – no more than three pages highlighting educational / personal / professional / civic achievements. The biographical information should include information supporting each area of the Scoring Rubric. Please refer to the Scoring Rubric to best align nomination narrative with scoring criteria. (Rubric available online)
- Letters of recommendation – two letters (personal / professional supporting your nomination)
- This completed questionnaire

A Sunnyside La Docena-Hall of Fame Committee reviews all the submitted applications and attachments and scores them, using the La Docena-Hall of Fame Nomination Scoring Rubric (see attached Rubric). Points are given based on the submitted applications and information, which should address each of the activities/accomplishments listed in the Rubric. Nominations submitted must address each category on the Scoring Rubric in order to receive sufficient points.

Please note that the Scoring Committee does not see the names of the nominated individuals. They only review the information and total the points. Individuals nominated will be notified if they have received the points necessary for induction into the La Docena-Hall of Fame.
